

Living with dragons

Hey i am 15 years old and live in a vinking village that's called drego.
I am the son of a chief and I don't have a mom. She died when I was young.

I am a aregs hite person and I like to develop my fingers.

The villagers are having a fight with Dragons, the mom, to attack the village and I kill and capture dragons. I don't like that so much.

one day ago a schot on a dragon when they were attacking oss and have gone into a fight with my dad so i am gononi to see what shot dan from the sky.

my dad just went to a meeting with other vikings so a run of to the first and find tracks of wer de dragon landed and i find the dragon leyen in a lake and the dragon is completely black and has green eyes I said to myself a fingk it is dad so a vent upp to take of the letter crops that i shot him down with.

And he pushed me to the wall but u didn't shot me he just fly away i was shaking all the vve back too my and my dad hose and went to sleep just as I touch the bed and when I wake up the next morning it was cold and water was drowning down to the floor when i look at the window it was like a and tornado but not a tornado it was like that all day.

And on the evinger the storm was slowly going away so i sneak out tooth dragon and see if it was still there and he was there but he couldn't fly hee miss a bit of his wing on his tail so i went back and waited for the night and went to the forge and mad a wing för the dragon all night when i went to sleep the clock was almost morning.

“Godmorning!!” yawning skärm

From down stairs from my dad.

when i came down he had made some pancakes and later on that day i went to my dragon and put the wing on hess tail and went slowly upp he's back and tried to fly and he didn't notice me and he tried to fly upp.

But it didn't work because the back wing was not strong enough so it went back in so me and my dragon did fly right into the water so take it off.

Later that night at va up and make a fringe so a kantrolit with my feet

So I could control it and wo waakt to a clip and set a pole in the ground and a rope and was glidden in the air.

3 Months later

My dad had made me join a club for vikings that was training young people to kill dragons. I didn't like to discover things everyday with my dragon so I didn't need to kill dragons. one day I was in a ring and the winner of the fight did go to the "Final" and kill the biggest dragon in front of everybody and i didn't want to win.

But the grokel a big dragon was after me and i didn't have no souls and a take some weed that the dragon slika so he itched on the neck and I did rub on him and hee like the so much so he laid on the drone on his back with his tongue out and when the old and wise lady was disading her of us me and a girl his name was astrid and she was the toughest of the all gabbe was taking up her hand in the air and the lady said no and then gabba put up my hand and she said yes and i was off to fight the biggest dragon in berk.

And the day has come it was 2 hours too the fight i was with my dragon and utterly astrid was up and she had been fooling me around the forest when she jumped down to the little lake she didn't see the dragon but she attacked by with a axe and put up on the shore and was casting me and my dragon was opening his mouth and it was a purple light in his mouth but astrid was attacking my and she swung her ax in the direction to my dragon but she missed my moment and was in a rift between them and said

"Astrid this is toothless" with a little voice

Then she started to run away and I jumped up on my dragon and started to scold her and we caught her and told her that she couldn't tell anyone in a long and a little while she accepted.

when was about to go into the dragon ring and face the dragon what all the berk watching and the gates were opening and the biggest dragon a ever seen came out i was standing there i couldn't move so i got on fire was it was one second to kill me my dragon toothless came and shoot and it came a big smoke cloud and i fell to the ground but when i wake up i was in a bed and my father was yelling at me i didn't understand so much but one hour later he was going to fight the dragons leader and kill it and he had my dragon as a so the dragon me and the other young was hurt water 9old inu to go was stuck on berk but i wanted to save my dragon so i told astrid i she wanted to fly to the island and save my dragon she said yes but we have a problem we didn't have a way to fly on.

I joined the dragons we had in are fighting class and we war on the way to help my toothless when we had come they were in a big fight they didn't see me so I went straight to my dragon and tried to lock him up the ship was right about to sink and i just did get him up and was about to fight the dragons leader right when we war about to go into the cave it came out and it was so angry when we war ready for a fight he did see us and try to kill me and my dragon i didn't think he could fly because he was so big but surprise he can war war shooting at it shorter and i was so much faster than him so i shot him in the wings so he can fly so he overthrown weight to the ground when i collide with the ground it exploded and what happened next
